When to Call Our Attorneys

- ❑ The short answer is, “Now!” It’s never wrong to call an attorney to ask if you might have a case.
- ❑ One of our experienced lawyers, who specializes in brain injury cases, will never charge you for a consultation and will help you figure out if your situation warrants legal action.
- ❑ From a minor concussion, to a severe traumatic brain injury, if your injury was caused by an accident, someone’s negligence or purposeful action, you may have a case worth pursuing. Only a qualified attorney can determine this.

Auto Accidents and Brain Injury

- ▣ Closed head injuries are in a special class of injuries vis-à-vis Michigan auto law and the courts.
